Invesco India Nifty 50 ETF

- An Exchange Traded Fund that invests in securities, which are constituents of Nifty 50 in the same weight as the underlying index.
- The fund aims to track Nifty 50 (benchmark) and generate returns that closely correspond to the returns generated by Nifty 50, subject to tracking error, if any.
- The fund manager does not take any view on stocks and sectors, and therefore fund's portfolio will be exactly similar to the underlying index(Nifty 50) sans exposure to debt and money market instruments, in order to meet liquidity and expense requirements.
- The Fund may, for a temporary period, also take exposure to derivatives of the index or its constituent stocks when equity shares are unavailable, in sufficient or for rebalancing in case of corporate actions and when it makes economic benefit for the Fund.

Exchange Traded Funds (ETFs)

ETFs are open-ended exchange traded funds, which are listed on the stock exchange and are traded just like stocks. ETFs typically track a basket of securities, an index or a commodity. For example, an ETF tracking equity index such as Nifty 50, will replicate the underlying portfolio of Nifty 50 by matching investments in the constituents of Nifty 50 in the same proportion, as they are in the index.

Benefits of ETFs

- Low Cost - Low on costs compared to actively managed funds.
- Greater Transparency: ETFs track the underlying index, so the investor is aware where his money is being invested.
- More Trading Flexibility: ETFs can be bought and sold on the exchange where they are listed.
- Low Minimums - Can be bought and sold in multiples of 1 Unit.
- Performance closely tracking that of the underlying index subject to tracking error if any.
